LAW, JUSTICE AND DEVELOPMENT WEEK 2016

LAW, CLIMATE CHANGE AND DEVELOPMENT

Two Sides of the Same Coin: The Index of Legal Certainty & The International Board on Economic Regulations

This session aims at presenting two cornerstone initiatives of Foundation for Romano-Germanic Law aiming at promoting a new way of assessing the linkages between law and business: The Index of Legal Certainty, an academic approach which aims at giving a scientific barometer on the degree to which a legal system is prone to business stability and growth; and the International Board on Economic Regulations, a more dynamic, pragmatic approach that gathers experts from around the world to discuss best practices and challenge existing legal frameworks in the regulation of economy.
