UNIVERSITÉ D'ÉTÉ du DROIT CONTINENTAL

Summer University of Continental Law

From 3 to 21 July 2017
Paris – Université Panthéon-Assas (Paris II)

The yearly meeting place of CONTINENTAL LAW

The Summer University of the Foundation for Continental law is the international and yearly meeting place for those interested in continental legal culture, whether they are academic scholars, legal professionals or students.

■ EXPECTED AUDIENCE

This Summer University focuses on students having completed their legal studies' cycle, on professors and on professionals.

An advanced language level is required for each of three sections: French, English and Spanish.

In 2016, the Summer University brought together more than 150 participants from 49 different nationalities.

■ APPLICATION

Registration fees, receiving financial supports from the Foundation for Continental Law, include training courses, conferences, visits, cocktails and amount to:

- 400 euros without accommodation
- 1 200 euros with accommodation for the whole month of July at the "Cité Internationale Universitaire de Paris" (17 Boulevard Jourdan- 75014 Paris)

Scholarships may, exceptionally, be granted upon specific and justified request.

■ TRAINING CONTENT

The courses, each lasting two hours, are given in the premises of the University "Panthéon-ASSAS" (Paris II), by professors and practitioners of different nationalities, eminent and internationally recognized specialists in Continental Law and Comparative Law.

The two common core courses are the following:

- Introduction to Civil laws
- European and International Contract Law

Moreover, participants are required to choose three courses, among the following five:

- Public contracts
- Settlement of International Disputes
- Family Law
- Intellectual and Industrial property
- Comparative European Civil Liability Law

As an extension to the courses, meetings with legal professions, especially lawyers and notaries, as well as methodology courses for the participants who wish to present the final exam, are scheduled.

■ CULTURAL ACTIVITIES

The training is completed by cultural visits of the highest French legal institutions such as the Conseil constitutionnel, the Conseil d'État, the Cour de cassation and parliamentary assemblies, namely the Assemblée nationale and the Sénat.

■ EXAMINATION and CERTIFICATE

On condition of regular attendance, participants receive a participation certificate to the Summer University of Continental Law. Students having signed up for the final exam will receive a Civil Law Initiative Certificate (master's level) delivered by the Université Panthéon Assas (Paris II). Dates and registration procedures are available on our website.
